A series of problems in the practical application of compliance:

- General protocol & production gaps and channel unclear
- Extend spans of jurisdiction over India, China, France, etc.
- Rounding went further and greater in US and Britain
- Banks emit fixed interest without disarmament
- Wartime limited military access to US, Britain, France, etc.
- Mostly consistent of US, China, Germany, and France
- Fights to establish peace and collective security in western Europe and Asia

London National Conference (1935) - Final Protocol
Geneva National (1922) - Rounding of Spans
Geneva National (1927) - No armaments

London Disarmament Conference (1919)
